

Acme Global Enterprise - Employee Handbook 2024-2025

Section 4: Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) & Parental Leave Policy

4.1 Eligibility Criteria

All full-time and part-time regular employees are eligible for FMLA coverage if they have:

- (a) Completed at least twelve (12) consecutive months of service with Acme Global.
- (b) Worked a minimum of 1,250 hours during the previous twelve-month period.
- (c) Work at a facility with fifty (50) or more employees within a 75-mile radius.

4.2 Parental Bonding Leave Duration and Compensation

Acme Global provides up to twelve (12) weeks of job-protected parental leave for the

- (a) Primary and secondary caregivers are entitled to twelve (12) weeks of fully subsidized employer leave at 100% of standard base salary.
- (b) California and New York residents may coordinate with state Paid Family Leave (PFL) funds for supplemental wage replacement.
- (c) Leave must be taken within twelve (12) months following the qualifying birth or placement event.

4.3 Intermittent Leave and Medical Certification

Employees requiring non-consecutive or reduced-schedule leave for serious health conditions or family care must furnish Department of Labor Form WH-380-F signed by an authorized healthcare provider within fifteen (15) calendar days of request. Intermittent leave schedules must be registered under ADP tracking code FMLA-INT.

Acme Global Enterprise - Employee Handbook 2024-2025

Section 5: Paid Time Off (PTO) & Leave Coordination Rules

5.1 Annual Accrual and Rollover Ceiling

Full-time employees accrue Paid Time Off (PTO) on a bi-weekly payroll cycle up to a maximum standard allotment of twenty (20) days per calendar year.

- (a) A maximum of five (5) accrued, unused PTO days may be carried over into the following calendar year.
- (b) Any carried-over PTO days must be scheduled and taken prior to March 31 of the new calendar year, after which they expire without cash payout.

5.2 Non-Mandatory PTO Burn-Down Coordination

Employees taking parental leave, FMLA, or short-term medical disability are NOT required to exhaust accrued PTO days prior to commencing statutory leave.

- (a) Use of PTO during approved FMLA leave is strictly voluntary at the employee's sole discretion.
- (b) Front-line people managers may not mandate that employees burn down vacation or sick banks before initiating FMLA.
- (c) Unused PTO balances remain protected and intact during the full 12-week parental leave period.

5.3 System of Record Filing via ADP Workforce Now

All life event leaves and PTO adjustments must be recorded through the ADP Workforce Now API integration. Front-line managers must submit the approved leave schedule to trigger appropriate payroll wage continuity.